Mr. Eason,

We discussed your concerns below at our last meeting with our Head and Assistant Coaches present. We all agreed that the assistant coach would assist in talking with Anna when needed. We also agreed to give her time to process and reset when needed. We discussed how her reactions on and off the field were something we needed to process with her. We shared that we want to support her needs and acknowledged her feelings. AD Poore and I talked with the Head coach, and we are working to meet all agreements to support Anna. We agreed to move forward with supports for Anna to feel more successful at her role as pitcher. I focused the meeting on Anna alone and how we can support her. We shared that other players and parents have not shared any concerns and now I have received concerns from parents about your public comments during our last game about our team, coaches, and their children. They have asked that you not talk about other players or our team in front of parents or other schools parents. I am happy to sit again and discuss supports for Anna. Our focus remains helping her work through any challenges she is facing. I am worried that reactions and comments are focusing attention on her alone that may be causing more harm. I need us all to find some common ground to help Anna feel supported and successful. Let me know. Thank you.
